

Benjamin Britten Academy of Music and Mathematics

Job Title: Apprentice Music Teacher

Benjamin Britten Academy of Music and Mathematics is a community built on a shared love of learning. We work together to enable scholars to develop curiosity in their subject and aspire to deepen their understanding across the breadth of the curriculum. Scholars are taught by subject experts and outstanding classroom practitioners. We are incredibly proud to have achieved the highest outcomes for our scholars at GCSE in the local area.

We are seeking someone who:

Has a genuine passion for working with young people.

- Holds high expectations for all students and is committed to providing rich extracurricular and enrichment opportunities.
- Inspires both students and colleagues through their professionalism and subject expertise.
- Is self-motivated, proactive, and driven to make a positive impact.
